

Private Tuition: One-to-one Lessons

Students who want to learn English or improve their English language skills do not always have the time to take a full time course, and others who are already studying may need some extra tutorials to help them with their progress. For these students we can provide one-to-one (1:1) tuition. Our teachers can focus on the particular areas that need improvement.

Who is this for?

Individuals who want intensive help with their general English language performance or want to focus on a particularly skill.

What are the benefits of taking one-to-one lessons?

- Individual attention from your teacher throughout the lesson
- Targeted learning based on individual learning needs
- Learning materials and activities selected and tailored for your needs

Because it is just you and your teacher, you can choose exactly what you want to concentrate on. This could be anything from intensive work on pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary, speaking or listening, to more specialised areas like business or social English or exam preparation. This also means your teacher is able to select and adapt materials that suit your learning needs and your style of learning.

If you choose to learn with a friend or family member, we can also offer two-to-one (2:1) lessons. You will both need to be at the same level of English on the CEFR framework prior to enrolling on a 2:1 course.

COURSE PROGRAMME

Before you start your lessons, we will ask you to give us as much information as possible about what you expect from your lessons. Your teacher will then use this information to plan lessons just for you.

You will arrange with CESC to schedule your lesson at a time which is best for you, although these will normally be available in the afternoon after existing courses have finished for the day. Other students already studying with us also sometimes take one-to-one lessons.
