

English for International Communication

In the modern world, the ability to communicate effectively with speakers of English from all over the world is crucial. This course is designed to give you the opportunity to practise speaking about interesting and important topics with people from all over the world. It will also help your confidence as a user of English and help you to develop a plan to continue to learn English after you go back home. Whether it be on general everyday topics, or discussing ideas and politics, the skill of international communication allows people to develop themselves both professionally and personally.

Who is this course suitable for?

This course is for people of all backgrounds and ages. Participants should be at least B1 (intermediate) level. Participants should already be able to talk clearly about their everyday lives and have a wish to develop this ability and combine it with the ability to discuss interesting and controversial issues. Students, employees and academics who want to be able to communicate effectively about their lives, their countries and the world we live in will benefit from this course.

What are the benefits?

- Develop the vocabulary and grammar for effective interpersonal communication on day to day topics
- Develop the language necessary to participate in contemporary social and political discussions
- Be exposed to a variety of English styles and viewpoints from around the world
- Get guidance about how to learn English more effectively once the course has finished

About this course:

Course available for group bookings or individuals. Please contact CESC for further information.

Course length: 1 week
30 Hours

Minimum Level: B1 (CEFR)

By attending this course you will improve

- Listening
- Vocabulary
- Grammar
- Speaking
- Intercultural skills
- Debating and negotiating skills
- Ability to talk about your country and the world with people from other countries

Please review the course programme overleaf for full details on this course.

English for International Communication

COURSE PROGRAMME

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
9.00-10.40	Placement test and induction	Reading about social and economic trends Choosing and recording useful vocabulary	Listening and making notes about technological changes; Describing change using the present perfect	Pronunciation workshop; Vowel sounds, word and sentence stress, chunking and connected speech	Vocabulary and grammar review Assessment of speaking
11.10-12.50	Vocabulary for talking about the economy and infrastructure Simple Passives	Describing/Comparing life in the present and past Mixed tenses	Language for agreeing/disagreeing and giving opinions	Vocabulary for global problems and opportunities; Making predictions using future tenses accurately	Group and individual feedback on assessment. Pointers for improvement and follow up plan.
13.50-15.00 Monday-Thursday 13.00-14.30 Friday	Introducing aspects of life in your country. Using appropriate sign-post language	Researching and designing a trip to your country. Presenting it to students from other countries	Group Discussion; Controversial issues Feedback	Taking part in a topical debate; Pros and cons of globalization	Classroom based business lunch with other international students.
15.00-16.30	History and geography of Colchester	Vocabulary games	I-chat Discussing and socialising with local people	Art Galleries and Art in Colchester	Pre-history and archaeology of Colchester

ACCOMMODATION AND TRANSFERS

Accommodation and airport transfers can be arranged. Prices are available on our 2018 Course Price List.

How to book:

- Visit our website: www.cesc.co.uk and click on 'Book now'
- Complete the enrolment form, selecting English for International Communication from the course menu
- Enter your transfer and accommodation requirements
- Pay your course deposit and registration fee of £275.00 by bank transfer
- You will be issued your final invoice to be paid no later than 2 weeks prior to your course start date

Colchester English Study Centre
19 Lexden Road
Colchester
Essex CO3 3PW
United Kingdom
Tel: +44 (0) 1206 544422
E-mail: info@cesc.co.uk